

Econ 420

Intermediate Theory: Money, Income, and Employment

UNC at Chapel Hill
Department of Economics
Summer Session I 2014

Instructor Information:

Ken Ho
Office: 202 Phillips Annex
Email: kjho@live.unc.edu
Office Hours: Tue & Thur, 1:00 pm to 2:00pm (or by appt.)

Class Schedule:

M,T,W,R,F: 11:30am to 1:00pm, Gardner 307

Course Materials:

Recommended Text: Macroeconomics by Richard Froyen.
Recommended Reading: The Wall Street Journal
Assignments, announcements, grades, readings, and other information will be posted at sakai.unc.edu.

Course Credit:

Students can not receive credit for both Econ 320 and Econ 420.
Econ 101 is a pre-requisite for this course.

Course Objectives:

This course will cover various macroeconomic models used to analyze the economy via macroeconomic methods. In particular, it will provide a useful framework to examine or predict the effects of different economic policies that have been or may be implemented.

Initially, the Classical and Keynesian models will be used to begin analyzing macroeconomic questions. Building on those models, the second half of the course will cover several following developments, as well as open economy macroeconomics, and economic policy. Economic growth will also be discussed at the end of the course.

Attendance:

Attendance is not taken for grading; however participation is determined by contributions to in-class discussions. Additionally, the lectures will be crucial to understanding the material covered in the course.

Honor Code:

The University's honor code will be adhered to strictly. Students may work with other students on homework assignments, but need to turn in each assignment individually.

Excused Absences:

Missed assignments or exams will be excused due to illness, religious observance, or participation in University sanctioned activities. The student must submit a note with the date and reason for the missed absence with appropriate supporting documentation (i.e. note from doctor, coach, etc.)

Grading:

Grading Component	Weight	Date
Final Exam	30 %	June 16
Midterm 1	25 %	May 27
Midterm 2	25 %	June 9
Homework	10 %
Journal	5 %
Class Participation	5 %

The final exam is on June 16, 11:30am to 2:30pm and will be comprehensive.

Exam Policies:

Missing the final exam without a valid excuse from the Dean will result in a zero exam score.

Missing the midterm without a valid excuse will result in a zero score. If missed with a valid excuse, the weight will by default be put on the final exam.

Homework/Journal Policies:

Homework is due by the start of class on the due date. After that, homework turned in will be penalized by 25% of the score for each day late (turning in after the end of class counts as a day late). Assignments can be turned in early.

Homework will be marked on a “check” basis. A homework that shows good understanding of the material will receive a “check+” (full points), while a “check” and “check-“ will receive 80% and 60% score respectively.

Grade Scale:

A	90
B	80
C	70
D	60
F	Below 60

The grade scale is listed above. Grades like B+ will potentially be assigned.

There is no curving except for when course grades are assigned at the end of the course. You will be informed of the scores required for each grade and half-grade.