Examinations: Two midterm exams will be given and each will be 25% of the final course grade. Students are expected to take the midterms at the announced times. Exceptions may be made in rare cases and a legitimate excuse may need to be accompanied by proof. A final exam will be given according to the University final exam schedule. The final will be 35% of the course grade. If a student misses an exam with an excusable reason, the weight on the final exam will be increased.

Homework Assignments: I will be assigning a total of eight homework assignments. The purpose of the assignments is to help give you practice to learn the materials. Assignments are always due at the beginning of the class. Homework assignments cannot be submitted via email or in the Economics department office or under my door. Late homework assignments will be accepted with a penalty of 50% for each delayed day. The lowest three homework grades will be dropped. Also, due to the tight schedule of the session, I will be grading only one question in each homework. The question to be graded will be determined by rolling a die or tossing a coin or a similar method. However, I will provide an answer key to help you check your answers.

Calculator: There is no need for a scientific calculator for this class. A simple calculator will be allowed for use in the exam. Programmable calculators or cell-phone calculators will NOT be allowed in the exam.

Grading weight: The course grade will be assigned using the following weights:

2 Midterm Examinations	50%
Homework Assignments	15%
A Comprehensive Final Exam	35%

Grading Scale:

At least 93%	A
At least 90% but less than 93%:	A-
At least 87% but less than 90%:	B+
At least 83% but less than 87%	B
At least 80% but less than 83%:	B-

At least 70% but less than 73%:	C-
At least 67% but less than 70%:	D+
At least 63% but less than 67%:	D
At least 60% but less than 63%:	D-
Less than 60%:	F

Grades are earned through the percentage point schedule given above. No extra credit of any kind is given to adjust grades at the end of the semester. Percentages are calculated using a spreadsheet software package and results are posted rounded to the first decimal place. Grades are assigned based on these results according to the above scale. There will be NO “rounding up” to the next grade level.

Miscellaneous:

1. Regular attendance is required for understanding the material and doing well in the course.
2. When you are in class, please pay attention which means no newspapers, facebook, IM, etc.
3. Cheating will not be tolerated. UNC Honor Code will be strictly enforced for all course work. Please refer to honor.unc.edu if you have any questions about the honor code.
4. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to catch up.
5. Please check your grades on Sakai periodically. Any grade related issues have to be settled within a week after the test or homework is returned. Please attach a short petition/note with the test/homework. Changes will not be made after a week.
