

Economics BA and BS Major course requirements:

Additional courses required for BS in red*

- MATH 231 (or MATH 152 or STOR 112), 232, 233
- 101, 400, 410, 420, 470
- Four/five elective courses at the 400+ level
- Electives must include one/two at 500-level
- Two of the following non-ECON electives:
COMP 110 or 116, MATH 347, 381, STOR 415, 435

The study of economics, like a tree, begins as a solid foundation with roots in the soil, then branches out in many directions, and yields much fruit (produced with patience... and a little weathering of the storms).

A UNC-CH Economics Major through the lens of a tree...

5 Reap the Rewards of a good foundation and enhanced understanding and application

- If interested in pursuing a Ph.D. in Economics, talk to a faculty member about supplemental courses

4 Build upon the Foundation through opportunities in our Department

- Senior honors thesis (ECON 691H, 692H)
- Study Abroad
- Exchange Program (NUS joint degree)
- DATA Science Credential (370, 470, 571/3/5)
- EconAid Center
- Undergraduate Learning Assistant (ULA)
- Carolina Economics Club
- Women in Economics
- Fed/FDIC Challenge Teams
- Summer Research Fellowships
- Adventures in Economics
- UnderRepresented Majors (URM) Funding
- Internship/Recruiting Fair

Develop Breadth with applications in elective 2 & capstone courses 3

1 Structure your Education in Economics with a solid foundation of required courses