

UNC – Chapel Hill
Department of Economics
Conference Participation Travel Grants

The Economics Department is pleased to offer funding to support the presentation of undergraduate research at a conference or seminar.

Eligibility:

Open to all undergraduate students majoring in Economics.

Application Procedure:

Applicants must submit at ECON_Undergradprogram@unc.edu proof that their paper has been accepted for presentation at the conference or seminar and that they are the presenter of the paper at the event. (An acceptance email or a copy of the official program would suffice.)

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis during the academic year, subject to funding availability.

Grant

The grant is for a maximum of $500 and can only be used to reimburse expenses associated with participation in the conference or seminar.

Requirements:

In order to disburse the grant, the winners are required to provide, after the conference or seminar:

1. Receipts for travel expenses.
2. A two-page summary about what they have learned at the conference or seminar.
