

Externship Opportunity for ECON Sophomores

Analysis Group is an Economic Consulting firm based in Boston. See link below for details:

<https://www.analysisgroup.com/about/diversity-equity-and-inclusion-at-analysis-group/rise-at-ag-externship/>

Journal of Foreign Affairs at Carolina

The Journal of Foreign Affairs at Carolina is now accepting paper submissions for the Spring 2024 issue, as well as staff/design editor and blog contributor applications!

JFAC is an undergraduate research journal at UNC that publishes excellent undergraduate research papers on global affairs and current events. Past editions can be viewed at <https://jfacunc.org/journals>. This is an incredible opportunity for students looking to publish their academic work!

Submit your paper or apply for one of our open positions below!

Paper Submission (deadline: January 21 at 11:59 PM): <https://forms.gle/1cbCDS9J7ZEojCP98>

- JFAC is calling for student research papers on international topics not limited to politics, policy, history, economics, art, and the humanities.

Staff Editor Application (deadline: January 24 at 11:59 PM): <https://forms.gle/wzm3c1SaWofEzN5c8>

- Staff Editors are responsible for reviewing, editing, and fact-checking the articles selected for publication, as well as for remaining in contact with the articles' respective authors throughout the publication process.

Design Editor Application (deadline: January 31 at 11:59

PM): <https://forms.gle/4hmCDTNeqwg8BB6N7>

- Design Editors are responsible for formatting finalized articles into a single publishable volume. The journal is looking for individuals who have previous experience with graphic design and/or Adobe InDesign

Blog Contributor Application (January 17 at 11:59 PM): <https://forms.gle/r1WHebiyag1HPrFq7>

- Blog contributors write short-form editorials or news-style articles on foreign affairs. Blog contributors will work with JFAC editor feedback to polish and edit blog drafts to prepare for publication.

If you have any questions about the journal or its open positions, please reach out to journalforeignaffairscarolina@gmail.com. We look forward to reading your submissions and applications!

January 19, 2024

Bank of America On-Campus Event (for First Years and Sophomores)

Bank of America Campus Showcase + Networking

Wednesday, January 24th 2024, 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm EST

Carolina Club - 150 Stadium Drive, Chapel Hill, North Carolina 27514

Details: Are you a current first year or sophomore interested in a 2025 summer program? Join Bank of America on January 24th to learn about our 2025 summer programs and connect with business representatives from Global Corporate & Investment Banking, Global Markets, and Wealth Management. Please note, all 2024 opportunities are closed at this point in time.

RSVP: <https://app.joinhandshake.com/emp/events/1460627>

SBC Impact Project – applications due 1/21

Gain hands-on consulting experience by working with The Impact Project, which lets teams of UNC students take on outsourced projects for breakthrough sustainability startups.

Applications close January 21st:

Project descriptions: <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1z89IJikGYd4BLJ-uc1C0Utd1w49bw-Czof4lomtl8/edit?usp=sharing>

Application: <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSetlZyrOVPUlrC6lNrcCed3gjO7eqGqmEJfjq6lQ--zHnlwSw/viewform>

Student Consulting Club – applications close 1/21

Are you interested in consulting, entrepreneurship, management, or non-profit work? Consider applying to 180 Degrees Consulting at UNC Chapel Hill! We're actively recruiting for new student consultants for the Spring 2024 semester!

180DC is a student-run consultancy that provides strategy and implementation services to nonprofits and social enterprises. 180DC allows students to gain hands-on experience with consulting to prepare students for post-graduation consulting experiences. Our past clients have included Parent Square, Lenovo, Inheritance of Hope, and Kenan-Flagler Business School.

Our strong alumni base for 180DC at UNC features students pursuing careers in Fortune 500 Companies like McKinsey & Company, Bain & Company, Goldman Sachs, BCG, Deloitte, JP Morgan, EY-Parthenon, Microsoft, and many others. Our talented students also go on to pursue higher education at institutions like Wharton, MIT Sloan, Harvard Business School, Stanford GSB, and many more.

If you're interested in recruiting with 180DC this semester, check out @unc180dc on Instagram for more information on our recruiting timeline and visit <http://tinyurl.com/unc180dcapp> for the application, which closes on January 21st at 11:59pm!

Agora Fellowship

The Program for Public Discourse welcomes applications for the 2024-2025 Agora Fellowship. The Agora comprises a cohort of undergraduate students committed to the study and practice of public discourse. Fellows learn rhetorical concepts as they engage challenging topical issues throughout the year. They also develop facilitative techniques to host monthly deliberative forums for the student body. Fellows convene the first three weeks of each month throughout the academic calendar. Typically, up to ten students are accepted into the incoming cohort. The application will run live from February 1-February 28. To apply, please visit <https://publicdiscourse.unc.edu/become-an-agora-fellow/>. Note the application requires both a statement of purpose and a letter of recommendation, so please provide time to secure necessary documents.

If you or your students have any questions about the program or the application process, please feel free to follow up with me directly. I appreciate your time and consideration.

--

Kevin Marinelli
Teaching Associate Professor
Department of Communication
Executive Director, Program for Public Discourse
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Teach for America

[\[FLYER\]](#)

PwC Campus Visits

- Leadership Conference Fair
 - We'll be joining the Accounting Club on campus to share our spring opportunities and learn more about you!
 - January 24th at 5:30pm in the Business School Lobby
- Presentations
 - BusiTech: Professional Skills
 - Learn more about the recruiting process, interviewing and networking at PwC.
 - January 30th at 6pm
 - Accounting Club
 - We'll be sharing our spring recruiting timeline and more about our Trust Solutions opportunities!
 - January 31st at 6:30pm

- PwC Coffee Chats
 - We want to chat about opportunities that would be most beneficial to you. Sign up for a coffee chat today!
 - February 5th in-person at McColl Cafe. Register here!
 - February 8th virtual on Teams. Register here!

Apply Today

- Destination CPA (Summer 2024 Internship + Summer 2025 Advance Internship)
 - Destination CPA is a 3 day, in person immersive experience for accounting students who receive 2025 Trust Solutions internship offers. Scheduled for April 19-21, 2024 in Walt Disney World, FL, this program will help accounting students build lasting relationships, explore the firm, understand the versatility of a CPA license/profession.
 - Deadline to apply is February 18th.
- Women's Consulting Experience (Summer 2024 Leadership Experience + Summer 2025 Advance Internship)
 - At PwC's Women's Consulting Experience, you will gain valuable insight into the firm, our consulting practice and our people. You will discover leadership skills that can be used on campus and beyond.
 - Deadline to apply is February 18th.
- Career Preview (Summer 2024 Experience)
 - PwC's Career Preview is a 3 day experience designed for high-performing individuals pursuing a bachelor's degree who are in the freshman year of a 4-year degree program or sophomore year of a five-year degree program. Career Preview is an excellent opportunity for you to confirm your college academic path and your career objectives, and to become better acquainted with PwC.
 - Deadline to submit the interest form is March 6th.

The UNC Institute of Politics is currently accepting new members!

The IOP is a nonpartisan student organization that aims to engage and inspire undergraduates to pursue careers in politics and public service. Students can get involved in any of the Institute's three programs:

Carolina Political Review

The Carolina Political Review is a publication dedicated to serving the Carolina community by connecting UNC-Chapel Hill to local, statewide, national, and global political issues. The CPR is the editorial arm of the Institute of Politics, and as such a nonpartisan publication. Nonpartisan in this sense does not mean the content contained within will be without opinions; in fact, by nonpartisan we seek to present many sides of arguments, along with objective reports on wide-ranging topics.

Civic Engagement Action Coalition

The Civic Engagement Action Coalition's (CEAC) mission is to build an unprecedented coalition on campus of multiple identity, cause-oriented, and interest groups to increase student involvement and awareness in the civic process. Building upon the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's reputation as a politically driven campus, CEAC seeks to not only promote civic engagement, but furthermore unite campus resources and efforts to create a culture of voter participation at Carolina and set an example for institutions across the state of North Carolina for how to mobilize and develop a voter-conscious campus.

Speaker Series

The Speaker Series aims to attract high-caliber, experienced, and knowledgeable individuals with a substantial background in the field of politics and public service to the campus of UNC Chapel Hill to engage in substantive conversations with students, faculty, and other members of the University community. From large-scale lectures to small workshops, or intimate dinners to crowded receptions, the Speaker Series tailors each of its events to best fit the character of the conversation.

To join the IOP, please fill out the interest form linked here.

ECON Study Abroad Opportunities

The UNC Economics Department is offering three (3!) different study abroad opportunities in Sweden and Croatia in Summer 2024, and we will be hosting information sessions both on zoom and in person before the application deadline of January 31 if you are interested in learning more about these programs from the program directors and past participants.

If you are interested in learning more about any of these programs, please attend the information session below or reach out to Professor Staub or Professor Sheran-Andrews Monday 1/22 5pm on zoom (<https://unc.zoom.us/my/kmstaub>)

All of these programs earn EE or High Impact Experience credit in the general education curriculum. All program are also listed as affordable summer programs with billable costs equal to $4700-$6100/ program, which works out to $1220-$1785/wk or $1016-$1785/credit hour, which is a steal considering that summer school at UNC costs $667-1000/credit hour and does not include lodging or cultural experiences!

The first program is UNC Exploring Economies in Scandinavia. This is a 3-week program (June 16-July 5) in Stockholm for both Econ majors and non-Econ majors taught by me (Dr. Staub). You will get 3 hours of UNC graded credit (Econ362), the Global Understanding and Engagement GenEd, and amazing memories. This will be my fourth summer running this program and it is consistently my favorite part of every year! This year, students will have the flexibility to take only my 3-week course or to make it a 6-week program by taking another class in Stockholm or Copenhagen before or after Econ 362.

The next program is a re-vamping of UNC Economics in Croatia, which has been led in the past by Dr. Balaban and will now be led by Dr. Sheran-Andrews (aka MSA). This will be a 5-week program (June 24-July 26) in Split, Croatia for Econ Majors only. Students will receive 3 graded, UNC credits (Econ 415: Market Failures taught by MSA) and 3 transfer credits (Econ4--: Transport Economics taught by a professor from the University of Split); all 6 credits will count towards the Econ major.

Finally, we will offer a new 3-week program (July 8-July 26), UNC Economics of Wine on the Dalmatian Coast, in Split, Croatia. Students will take Econ490: The Economics of Wine with Dr. Staub and get 3 hours of graded, UNC credit that will count towards the Econ major. This program is also for Econ majors only. If you want to, you could pair this program with Exploring Economies in Scandinavia or another study abroad course that ends before 7/7.

Both programs in Croatia are timed such that you can take classes during Maymester or Summer I on campus.

If you have questions about any of these programs and you cannot make it to the information sessions, please feel free to reach out to Dr. Staub or MSA directly. If you are interested in other study abroad opportunities, I suggest reaching out to the UNC StudyAbroad Office.

Predoctoral Fellow at Opportunity Insights [\[FLYER\]](#)

Opportunity Insights (OI) is hiring several fellows for our predoctoral program beginning in July 2024. These full-time positions will be based in Cambridge, MA. Predoctoral fellows will work closely with Raj Chetty (Harvard), John Friedman (Brown), Nathan Hendren (MIT), and other OI collaborators at Harvard and other universities.

The predoctoral fellowship is geared toward students interested in working with us for two years after graduating from an undergraduate or master's program. Predoctoral fellows will work on research and analyses related to economic mobility. Additionally, predoctoral fellows have opportunities to participate in seminars and other research activities in a team-oriented lab environment. The program serves as a good bridge between college and graduate school for students interested in applied economics and mobility scholarship. Our Spring application deadline is Thursday, February 8, 2024.

We particularly encourage applications from groups traditionally under-represented in Economics. Even if applicants are uncertain whether their technical research skills or subject-matter knowledge will be competitive, we strongly encourage their application.

Further details and application instructions are available on our website.

January 19, 2024

UNC Math in Firenze

Interested in studying abroad? This summer I will be leading Math in Firenze, a month-long program where you can take MATH381 "Discrete Mathematics" together with a second class taught at the Lorenzo de' Medici Institute in Italy. For more information about this program visit:

<https://heelsabroad.unc.edu/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgramAngular&id=12029>

Please feel free to email me <sawon@email.unc.edu> if you have questions.

Best regards,
Justin Sawon
Professor of Mathematics and Study Abroad Liaison

A flyer for the UNC Math in Firenze program. The background is a photograph of the Florence skyline, featuring the large red-tiled dome of the Florence Cathedral (Duomo) and other buildings. The flyer has a dark blue header with the text "UNC MATH IN FIRENZE" in large white letters. In the top right corner, there is a light blue box with the UNC logo and the text "COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES Study Abroad". Below the header, there are three columns of information, each preceded by a blue semi-circle icon. The first column lists "MATH 381 Discrete Mathematics LdM course Transfer Credit". The second column lists "May 30 - June 29, 2024" and "Dr. Justin Sawon sawon@email.unc.edu". The third column lists "More Info & Apply go.unc.edu/MathInFlorence".

UNC MATH IN FIRENZE

UNC
COLLEGE OF
ARTS AND SCIENCES
Study Abroad

MATH 381
Discrete
Mathematics
LdM course
Transfer Credit

May 30 - June 29, 2024

Dr. Justin Sawon
sawon@email.unc.edu

More Info & Apply
go.unc.edu/MathIn
Florence

CPC is now accepting applications for its Summer Undergraduate Internship Program [\[FLYER\]](#)

The Summer 2024 Internship Program provides a paid research and professional development experience for undergraduate students interested in population-focused graduate training and careers. See flyer or this site for additional information and application procedure.

APPLES Summer Internship Announcement

Applications for Service-Learning Internships for the summer semester are now open! They should be completed on the Carolina Center for Public Service portal and are due January 31st. These are paid internships with Triangle-area non-profit or government organizations, offered as part-time positions during the summer. Students who participate in an APPLES summer internship receive a stipend of $4000 and commit to working 320 service hours over 8-10 weeks (35 to 40 hours per week). Interns also take an academic service-learning course that includes 1 hour of course credit offered through the UNC School of Social Work which fulfills the experiential education/high-impact experience requirement. These positions are open to undergraduate students. The Summer 2024 Internship sites explore a variety of interdisciplinary fields including education & childcare, retirement communities, arts & culture, wildlife conservation, immigrant health, social advocacy, marketing, and communication. For more information about particular opportunities, visit the APPLES Service-Learning Internships site at <https://ccps.unc.edu/apples/service-learning-internships/> and further details about the Summer 2024 internship sites are available in this document. If you have questions, feel free to reach out to the Internships Co-Chairs, Julia Renberg (juliaren@email.unc.edu) and Gabriella Ahn (gahn@unc.edu).

For inquiries about further opportunities to get involved with APPLES such as alternative breaks, one-day expeditions, and service-learning courses, contact APPLES@unc.edu.

Work with local nonprofits.

Earn a stipend & professional experience.

Learn in an Experiential Education (EE) or High-Impact Experience (HI-Service) course.

Scholarship Opportunity for Sophomores at UNC - Clarkston Scholars Program

The Clarkston Scholars Award is a $10,000 scholarship, awarded to a highly driven, first-generation college student who excels in the classroom, has an interest in consulting or the industries Clarkston serves (consumer products, life sciences, and retail), and has demonstrated financial need. You can learn more about the program here.

The application deadline is January 26, 2024.

The Undergraduate Law Association at Carolina (ULAC) is currently accepting applications for staff applications, and paper and article submissions for its Law Journal and Blog!

ULAC operates the first and only student-run undergraduate law review on campus, the Undergraduate Law Journal at Carolina. The Journal showcases the legal scholarship of undergraduate students. ULAC also runs the Undergraduate Law and Policy Blog, which publishes shorter and more easily digestible legal commentary and analysis. UNC students can apply to be writers, blog contributors, staff editors, and graphic design editors. No legal experience is needed to apply or submit. Experience with Adobe InDesign is preferred for design editors.

January 19, 2024

The Journal and Blog are also collecting submissions for papers and blog articles for publication in the Journal and Blog. Submissions may be originally written for publication, or they may be a piece previously written during your undergraduate studies, such as an essay, an op-ed, a research paper, or a senior thesis. Submissions may center on any disciplinary perspective as long as the piece relates to the law, including international law or non-US legal systems.

The applications contain detailed descriptions of the 3 divisions that you may apply for — the Journal, Blog, and Administrative Division — and the paper or article submission guidelines. We invite you to learn more about ULAC and how you can get involved in this excellent opportunity for editing and publishing legal research and analysis.

The staff applications can be found here: <https://ulacarolina.org/apply/>

Those seeking to be design editors should fill out the appropriate section in the Journal application.

The form to submit a paper in the Journal can be found here: <https://forms.gle/G4kaD6R12UTzGDPA9>

The form to submit a Blog article can be found here: <https://forms.gle/q5WGwXw9XU9ZS38Y7>

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at tarheelulac@gmail.com. We thank you for considering ULAC and are eager to see your applications and submissions!

Staff Applications are due Sunday, January 28th, at 11:59 PM Eastern Standard Time.

Journal Paper and Blog Article Submissions are due Sunday, February 4th, at 11:59 PM Eastern Standard Time.

Happy New Year and second week of classes! University Career Services is thrilled to unveil an exciting lineup of fairs and events, designed to ignite the career journeys of both undergraduate and graduate students. Here's what's in store for Spring 2024:

Career & Graduate School Recruitment Fairs hosted and promoted by University Career Services:

- Spring Job & Internship Fair \(Day 1\) – Monday, January 29th, 12 PM to 4 PM
- Spring Job & Internship Fair \(Day 2\) – Tuesday, January 30th, 12 PM to 4 PM
- Graduate Career Consortium PhD & Masters Virtual Career Expo – Wednesday, March 6th, 12 PM to 4 PM
- Virtual All Industries Career Fair – Wednesday, March 20th, 12 PM to 4 PM
- Health Professions Schools Information Fair – Monday, March 26th, 12 PM to 3 PM

Pre-Fair Preparation Events

- Jan. 17: Prepare for the Career Fair Expert Tips (virtual) from 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm
- Jan. 18: Prepare for the Career Fair Expert Tips (virtual) from 10:00 am to 11:00 am
- Jan. 22-25: Prepare for the Career Fair Resume Critiques with Recruiters (virtual) from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm
- Jan. 22: Strategies to Develop Your Job/Internship Search Process (Hanes Hall 239) from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm
- Jan. 23: Career Fair Resume Drop-ins (Hanes Hall 239) from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm
- Jan. 24: Mock Interview Program from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm

Industry Snack & Chats – Open to all students, regardless of major! Grab some snacks and engage with employers in a laid-back setting. This is your golden opportunity to ask questions, discover more about companies, and explore potential career paths.

- Wednesday, February 7th, 11 AM to 2 PM – [\[Register here\]](#)
- Wednesday, February 14th, 11 AM to 2 PM – [\[Register here\]](#)
- Wednesday, February 21st, 11 AM to 2 PM – [\[Register here\]](#)

Don't miss these chances to explore career options, build your network, and unlock new possibilities. Check out the registered organizations by clicking the links above!