

MONDAY – Alumni Spotlight: A Conversation with John Altschuler – March 18, 2024 5:30-7:00 PM Murphey 116 [\[FLYER\]](#)

The Departments of Communication and Economics are pleased to co-sponsor an event featuring UNC alumnus John Altschuler, creator of King of the Hill, Silicon Valley, Lopez and more, who will participate in a public interview on Monday, March 18 from 5:30-7:00PM in Murphey 116.

He will also visit Gardner on 3/18 from 3:00 – 4:30 pm for open office hours (in room 110) to meet with students and to share with them how his training in economics has impacted him throughout his career.

John was an ECON Major and remains a longtime supporter of COMM's Hollywood Internship Program. He will offer students lots of insights into the future of the entertainment industries. John's career path and creative work would be especially of interest to students interested in comedy, animation, and careers in the entertainment industries, but his brand of social satire, which comments sharply on Americana and some of the tensions and hypocrisies that undergird American ideals would also be of interest to students in a wide range of disciplines.

Information Session and Interview Day for Seniors

Are you a graduating senior considering starting your career in technology, healthcare, or a scaling startup? TruLab invites you to their information session and interview day at Honors Carolina as they share more about the impactful career opportunities within their company. Register here!

At the information session, you'll have the opportunity to learn about TruLab, Inc., an RTP-based mobile technology company that provides biosample tracking and management solutions for clinical trials. TruLab's mission is to eliminate loss of samples provided for research by patients, which helps the science industry accelerate the development of new medicines and vaccines.

March 15, 2024

Several members of the team will offer insight into their roles, the company, and to answer any questions you may have about their open positions. Speakers will include TruLab's CEO, Scott Ogle, and VP of Customer Success, Danny Sharman, as well as a few recent Honors Carolina graduates who joined the TruLab team after graduating from UNC. Regardless of your major, you are encouraged to attend if the opportunity to join this company is exciting to you.

TruLab Interview Day

Wednesday March 20th 2024

Graham Memorial Room 212

11 am - 3:30 pm

TruLab is focused on hiring graduating seniors into several roles including Product Analyst, QA Analyst, and Data Analyst (job descriptions attached here). Students are encouraged to apply via Handshake or by emailing danny.sharman@trulab.com directly. We'll be coordinating in-person interviews with candidates immediately following the Information Session.

Elon Microfinance Challenge

This is a virtual economic consulting case competition utilizing real world Microfinance data being co-hosted by the Economics Department at Elon University and Elon Microfinance Initiative. It will provide participants the ability to present to an actual non-profit organization, Seed Effect, and exhibit analytical and presentational skills in a professional setting. There will be cash prizes of:

- $1000 for first place
- $500 for second place
- $250 for third place

We would love for as many people as possible to participate! Individuals or teams with up to three individuals can sign up by the registration deadline of March 29th. Singular individuals can also sign up and be assigned a team. The case will then be revealed on April 1st, with the final presentation due on April 15th to be judged. The presentations can be completed any time before the due date and will consist of a recorded virtual presentation in accordance with the prompt. Finalists will then have a chance to be interviewed a few days after April 15th and the winners will then be selected. Please once again spread the word to anyone who may be interested within your organization! Anyone interested can sign up using the google form attached with this email. If there are any other questions, please contact me at elesniak@elon.edu. I greatly appreciate your time and help!

Carolina Athletic Hospitality – Employment Opportunities

My name is Jordan Herrera, and I am the Office Intern with Carolina Athletic Hospitality. Our office manages operations for all premium seating and hospitality areas at Kenan Stadium, the Smith Center, Carmichael Arena, and Boshamer Stadium. We are currently hiring individuals who are motivated to work, interested in hospitality and/or sports, and looking to add experience to their resume!

Our FANgineers (Game Day Employees) are responsible for greeting guests when they arrive to the Premium Area(s), scanning tickets, wristbanding guests, monitoring premium spaces and protecting their exclusivity, and other similar tasks. All FANgineer employees are paid $12/hour and receive a free meal during their 30-minute break on the game days. We do require that FANgineers commit to working ALL 7 home football games in the upcoming 2024 season.

This position is a great opportunity to be involved with the hospitality aspect of UNC athletics and gain experience for your resume and future career endeavors. This position is also a great option for those with a heavy courseload, as we ask for minimal time commitment and have a predetermined schedule.

Please inform those who are interested in applying to put the club/organization/department name in the “How Did You Hear About Us” box. Please share this information and my contact to anyone who may be interested!
