

ECON460: INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS

(EURO460/PWAD460)

Summer Session II 2024

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

COURSE INFORMATION

Credit Hours: 3 credit hours

Pre-requisites: ECON400 and ECON410 with grade C or above

Target Audience: Economics majors

Meeting Pattern: Mon/Tue/Wed/Thu/Fri 9:45 am – 11:15 am

Instructional Format: In-person

Classroom or Location: Gardner 007

INSTRUCTIONAL TEAM INFORMATION

Instructor: Mariya Sviderskaya

Email Address: mariyas@live.unc.edu

Office Hours: Mondays and Wednesdays 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm on Zoom, Tuesdays and Thursdays 11:30 am – 12:30 pm in Econ Aid Center (Gardner 009), or by appointment.

Grading Assistant: Jonghyuck Lim

COURSE CONTENT

Course Goals & Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)

This elective course for Economics majors aims to equip students with a comprehensive framework for examining important issues in international trade and international macroeconomics.

Key Learning Objectives:

By the end of the course students will be able to:

1. Analyze why countries engage in international trade and how the gains from trade are determined using microeconomic theories of international trade.
2. Assess the impact of trade policies on both consumers and producers and argue in favor of free trade or protectionism.
3. Understand the structure and functioning of the foreign exchange market.
4. Investigate the determinants of the exchange rates in the short and the long run.
5. Understand the linkages between macroeconomic indicators in the open economy using the balance of payments framework.
6. Evaluate the effects of monetary and fiscal policies in the open economy in the short run with fixed and floating exchange rate regimes.
7. Interpret the macroeconomic data on international trade, exchange rates and balance of payments.

IDEAs in Action Curriculum

This course meets the Global Understanding and Engagement focus capacity of the IDEAs in Action Curriculum. Please see more information about the learning outcomes of this focus capacity here.

Global Understanding and Engagement focus capacity	Relevant ECON460 Coursework
Writing, totaling at least 10 pages in length or the intellectual equivalent	Homework assignments, Midterm and Final examinations
Presenting material to the class, small groups, or the public through oral presentations, webpages, or other means	Group work in class, in-class quizzes, Poll Everywhere questions
Collaborating in pairs or groups to learn, design, solve, create, build, or research	Group work in class, in-class quizzes, Poll Everywhere questions, Homework assignments

Course Text

"International Economics" by Robert Feenstra and Alan Taylor, 5th edition. The textbook is available to rent or purchase at the publisher's website, in the UNC student stores, and in university library reserves (Davis). Previous editions of the textbook are close substitutes.

Class Workload Expectations

This course is a 3-credit hour class. It is content-heavy and quite demanding; therefore, the expected workload is around 3 hours outside the classroom for every hour of the class time.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS & ASSESSMENTS

Assignment Descriptions

Homework assignments

The homework assignments need to be submitted via Gradescope by the announced due date. Assignments submitted by email will not be graded. It is students' responsibility to make sure the submitted assignments are clear, easy to read and the pages are arranged in the right order. Students are strongly encouraged to work on the assignments together, but each student must submit their own work that is not identical to other students' submissions. Late submissions will not be accepted for any reason. Two of your lowest scores for homework assignments will be dropped to account for any emergencies that prevent you from submitting the homework on time.

In-class quizzes

You will have six in-class quizzes during the semester, the exact dates will be announced in class and published on the course Canvas page. The quizzes will cover the most recent course material. You will be allowed to bring one letter page (one side) of your own handwritten notes to use during the quiz. No other materials or use of electronic devices will be permitted. You will be given limited time to discuss your answers in small assigned groups before submitting the quiz for grading. The highest four scores of your quizzes will count towards the total score of this component of the course grade. There will be no make-up quizzes offered. If you miss the quiz due to a university approved absence, that quiz will be excluded from the calculation of the total score.

In-class polls

In class poll questions will be given during most of the lectures, as a measure of class participation and as feedback on the material covered. Students will work in groups of two or three to discuss the questions posed in class. Each student should submit their own answer to PollEverywhere questions. These questions will be graded by completion. You can either login at polleverywhere.com or by using the Poll Everywhere mobile app. You must use your official UNC email address, select the single sign-on link, and then enter your Onyen and Password. There is no make up for the missed polls. I understand that there are circumstances like illness or family emergency that may prevent you from attending some of the lectures, as well as certain technology issues. I will drop 15 percent of poll scores out of the total number of polls given during the semester (rounded to the nearest integer). Please note that answering the poll questions from outside of the classroom will be considered a violation and will be referred to the Honor System (see more in UNC check in section).

UNC check in

I will be using UNC check in to track attendance of the lectures. You can skip up to two lectures without any penalty and without the need to notify me of the reasons for your absence. Lectures missed due to a university approved absence will be excluded from calculation of the total score for this component. Please note that if I discover discrepancies between attendance from UNC check in and your recorded PollEverywhere answers for that lecture, this will be considered a violation and will be referred to the Honor System.

Examinations

One midterm exam will be given for a total weight of 30 percent of the final grade. A final exam will be given according to the University final exam schedule. The final exam will be 30 percent of the course grade. The exam format will be provided in classes prior to a given exam.

Make-up Exam policy: There is no make-up midterm examination. Missing midterm exam without an approved reason will result in a zero grade for the exam. If you are going to miss a midterm exam you must contact me before the start of the exam and provide me with a reasonable explanation or (ideally) a university approved absence. You are required to support your explanation with appropriate documentation within three business days of the exam. The excuses for missing a midterm exam include documented serious illness or family emergency as well as a documented court appearance. If the explanation and documentation are approved by me, then the weight of the midterm will be placed on the final exam. In this case the weight of the final exam will be 60 percent of the total course grade. If you have to miss final exam you need to provide me with an official exam excuse no later than the last day of classes, or by the start of the final exam in case of serious illness or emergency.

Regrade requests

Regrade requests for homework assignments and the midterm exam can be submitted online via the Gradescope for three days after the grades have been returned. No regrade requests will be accepted after the deadline for any reason. You need to provide an acceptable explanation for your request. By submitting a regrade request you acknowledge that your entire assignment will be regraded and your grade may increase or decrease. All regrades are final. No regrade requests will be accepted for in-class quizzes.

Grading Scale

Assignments weights

Midterm Exam	30%
Final Exam	30%
In-class Quizzes	20%
Homework Assignments	12%
In-class Poll Questions	6%
UNC check in	2%

There is no extra credit of any kind in this course. Grades are assigned according to the scale below. I reserve the right to curve the grades if I see it appropriate. Please also note that the grades will not be "rounded up" for any reason.

Numeric Grade (%)	Letter Grade
93.00 and above	A
90.00 – 92.99	A-
87.00 – 89.99	B+
83.00 – 86.99	B
80.00 – 82.99	B-
77.00 – 79.99	C+
73.00 – 76.99	C
70.00 – 72.99	C-
67.00 – 69.99	D+
60.00 – 66.99	D
59.99 and below	F

POLICY STATEMENTS

Attendance Policy

Regular attendance is strongly recommended. You are responsible for any announcements and material that you may have missed due to absence from the class. You should get the missed notes/announcements from your classmates. You do not need to notify me if you are going to miss the lecture. However, students who are not willing or able to attend regularly should drop the course. See more under “academic policies” below.

Should you find yourself in a situation where you have to miss, or expect to miss, more than two consecutive classes due to an unforeseen circumstance, please inform both the instructor and the Office of the Dean of Students immediately.

Communication with the instructor and grading assistant

Questions about the class material are best addressed in person during or after the lecture, and during the office hours. If you are unable to see me during the scheduled office hours, we can schedule an appointment at the time that works for both of us.

Other questions should be sent to my email: mariyas@live.unc.edu with the subject “ECON460 <insert a short description of the issue here>”. You should expect a response within 48 hours during the weekdays and within 72 hours during weekends and holidays.

All regrade requests should first be submitted via Gradescope. I will only consider them if you are unable to resolve the issue with the grading assistant. Please refrain from emailing your GA.

Course AI Use Policies

Use of generative AI tools of any kind is not permitted in this course. Any use of these tools will be considered an instance of academic dishonesty and will be referred to the Honor System.

Academic Policies

University Class Attendance Policy

University Policy: As stated in the University's Class Attendance Policy, no right or privilege exists that permits a student to be absent from any class meetings, except for these University Approved Absences:

1. Authorized University activities: University Approved Absence Office \(UAAO\) website provides information and FAQs for students and FAQs for faculty related to University Approved Absences
2. Disability/religious observance/pregnancy, as required by law and approved by Accessibility Resources and Service and/or the Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office (EOC)
3. Significant health condition and/or personal/family emergency as approved by the Office of the Dean of Students, Gender Violence Service Coordinators, and/or the Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office (EOC).

Instructors may work with students to meet attendance needs that do not fall within University approved absences. For situations when an absence is not University approved (e.g., a job interview, illness/ flu or club activity), instructors are encouraged to work directly with students to determine the best approach to missed classes and make-up assessment and assignments.

Honor Code Statement

All students are expected to follow the guidelines of the UNC Honor Code. In particular, students are expected to refrain from "lying, cheating, or stealing" in the academic context. If you are unsure about which actions violate the Honor Code, please consult studentconduct.unc.edu.

Syllabus Changes

I reserve the right to make changes to the syllabus including assignments' due dates and test dates. These changes will be announced as early as possible.

Services & Student Support Policies

Accessibility Resources & Services (ARS)

Accessibility Resources and Service (ARS – ars@unc.edu) receives requests for accommodations, and through the Student and Applicant Accommodations Policy determines eligibility and identifies reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities and/or chronic medical conditions to mitigate or remove the barriers experienced in accessing University courses, programs and activities. ARS also offers its Testing Center resources to students and instructors to facilitate the implementation of testing accommodations. Faculty and instructors with any concerns or questions about accommodations and/or their implementation, are invited to reach out to ARS to discuss.

Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS)

UNC-Chapel Hill is strongly committed to addressing the mental health needs of a diverse student body. The Heels Care Network website is a place to access the many mental health resources at Carolina. CAPS is the primary mental health provider for students, offering timely access to consultation and connection to clinically appropriate services. Go to their website <https://caps.unc.edu/> or visit their facilities on the third floor of the Campus Health building for an initial evaluation to learn more. Students can also call CAPS 24/7 at 919-966-3658 for immediate assistance.

Title IX Resources

Any student who is impacted by discrimination, harassment, interpersonal (relationship) violence, sexual violence, sexual exploitation, or stalking is encouraged to seek resources on campus or in the community. Reports can be made online to the EOC at <https://eoc.unc.edu/report-an-incident/> or by contacting the University's Title IX Coordinator (Elizabeth Hall, titleixcoordinator@unc.edu) or the Report and Response Coordinators in the Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office (reportandresponse@unc.edu). Confidential resources include Counseling and Psychological Services and the Gender Violence Services Coordinators (gvsc@unc.edu). Additional resources are available at safe.unc.edu.

Policy on Non-Discrimination

The University is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our community and to ensuring that educational and employment decisions are based on individuals' abilities and qualifications. Consistent with this principle and applicable laws, the University's Policy Statement on Non-Discrimination offers access to its educational programs and activities as well as employment terms and conditions without respect to race, color, gender, national origin, age, religion, genetic information, disability, veteran's status, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. Such a policy ensures that only relevant factors are considered, and that equitable and consistent standards of conduct and performance are applied. If you are experiencing harassment or discrimination, you can seek assistance and file a report through the Report and Response Coordinators (email reportandresponse@unc.edu or see additional contact info at safe.unc.edu) or the Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office at <https://eoc.unc.edu/report-an-incident/>.

Diversity Statement

I value the perspectives of individuals from all backgrounds reflecting the diversity of our students. I broadly define diversity to include race, gender identity, national origin, ethnicity, religion, social class, age, sexual orientation, political background, and physical and learning ability. I strive to make this classroom an inclusive space for all students. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to improve. I appreciate any suggestions.

COURSE SCHEDULE (TENTATIVE, SEE DETAILS ON CANVAS)

International trade

Week	Topics	Readings
Week 1	Introduction to the course Ricardian theory of Comparative Advantage Specific-factors model Heckscher-Ohlin model	Chapters 2 – 4
Week 2	Movement of Labor and Capital Between Countries Import Tariffs and Quotas Export Policies (time permitting)	Chapters 5, 8, 10.2 – 10.6
July 9	Midterm exam

International macroeconomics

Week	Topics	Readings
Week 3	Exchange Rates and the Foreign Exchange Market Exchange Rates: The Monetary Approach in the Long Run	Chapters 13, 14
Week 4	Exchange Rates: The Asset Approach in the Short Run National and International Accounts: Income, Wealth, and the Balance of Payments Balance of Payments: The Gains from Financial Globalization (time permitting)	Chapters 15 – 17
Week 5	Balance of Payments: Output, Exchange Rates, Macroeconomic Policies in the Short Run Fixed vs floating exchange rate regimes (time permitting)	Chapters 18, 19
July 29	Final exam	